

The Transnational Repression Project

Winter 2024

The Transnational Repression Project (TRP), housed at the University of Michigan's Center for Political Studies, was launched in October as the central home for the study of transnational repression. To learn more about the project, and to access a diverse range of relevant resources and news, visit us at transnationalrepression.com

As we look toward the future, we would like to know how we can best be of service to those working in this field. Please consider filling out the short feedback form below.
